

RIFT APPEARS IN SUFFRAGE RANKS

Delegates Approach Question of How to Secure Full Suffrage

MAY PREVENT ACTION

Leaders May Insist Question Be Left To Boards of Directors

VOTE TO APPROVE BILL

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 20.—A rift in the ranks of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association came to the surface today as the delegates in convention here approached the question of how to secure full suffrage.

Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch of Evanston, for twenty years legislative chairman of the organization, in a speech on the floor of the convention, demanded that the association favor a direct constitutional amendment for full suffrage.

Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, the next president of the association, with equal vigor demanded that the suffragists women work for the amendment to the amending clause.

Suppressed feeling of antagonism was apparent in the remarks of the speakers and their followers.

Which policy the convention will adopt was tonight a uncertainty, but it seemed that either the constitutional convention or the amendment to the amending clause, or possibly both, would be the plan to be followed. A number of delegates are opposed to presenting a full suffrage amendment because they believe it could never muster the necessary two thirds majority.

The differences between Mrs. McCulloch and some of the other leaders was again noticeable when the resolutions committee from which will come recommendations of policy, passed a rule that no resolution could be presented after noon today.

Mrs. McCulloch arrived too late to present to the committee her full suffrage resolution, it was said, and she will be unable to have the committee consider it unless the rules are suspended.

To prevent a prolonged and heated discussion on the important pending question the convention was hastily adjourned this afternoon following a discussion of methods for securing full suffrage by State Senator Hugh S. Magill Jr., Charles E. Merriam, Alderman of Chicago; Finley Bell, secretary of the legislative reference bureau, Mrs. McCulloch and Mrs. Trout.

The fight will be brought on to the floor of the convention tomorrow when the resolutions committee reports. It is possible the leaders may prevent any definite action by insisting that the question of policy be left to the decision of the boards of directors.

The association will back a bill which will wipe out the laws on illegitimacy in Illinois by declaring the parents of a child born out of wedlock to be legally husband and wife at the time the child was born. Dr. Lucey Wait announced she would introduce the measure at the next session of the legislature. Her action was approved by a vote of the delegates.

War News Summarized

In France, in Galicia and in the Dobruja region of Roumania the armies of the central powers successfully have taken the offensive against their opponents. They also are holding the entente allies in check in northern Macedonia and are continuing the fighting on the Transylvania-Roumania frontier.

Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, assuming the initiative on the Somme front in France, has, according to the Berlin war office, recaptured from the British, the greater part of the positions won from the Germans Oct. 18th, between Eaucourt L'Abbaye and LeBarque, between the Pozieres-Bapaume road and Kuedecourt and toward Beaumont. The Germans also have successfully withstood British attacks near Pourcellette and LeSars and on the Pozieres-Bapaume road. Paris reports only artillery activity on the Somme front but London chronicles the repulse, with heavy casualties of a German attack in the Thiepval region.

On the eastern front the Teutonic forces have stormed Russian positions on the left bank of the Narayukva river, southeast of Lemberg and held the conquered ground against counter-attacks. Fourteen officers and 2,950 men and 11 machine guns were taken here by Prince Leopold's troops.

In Volynia the fighting continues with varying results, both the Austro-Germans and the Russians claiming repulses of attacks on various sectors.

To the north of Kiselina a stubborn battle is being waged, with no decision having been reached.

Field Marshal Von Mackensen again has resumed his drive toward the Constantza-Bucharest railroad in Dobruja. While Berlin reports the fighting there as "livelier," Bucharest admits that the Roumanian left wing along the Black Sea coast has been thrown back. Petrograd reports that the Teutonic attacks were repelled with heavy losses and that the battle continues.

The Roumanian armies are fighting hard to drive the troops of the central powers back thru the frontier passes into Transylvania.

Bucharest reports the beginning of an offensive in the Oltuz valley, northeast of Kronstadt, and the taking of Mount Surd, east of the Rothrum Pass, south of Hermanstadt. Attacks in the Bran Delfe and the Trotus, Uzul and Alt valleys were repulsed by the Roumanians.

While Paris says the Serbians have captured the town of Velyesko north of Brod in the region marked by the Bend in the Cerna river in Southern Serbia, Berlin declares the offensive there has come to a halt.

Violent fighting continues on Monte Pasubio, in the Trentino region with Rome and Vienna both claiming slight successes.

German submarines operating in the Mediterranean have sunk two British ships bound for Saloniki with supplies. The sinking of three vessels, two of them of neutral nationality, by German U-boats is reported from London.

REPORT CARRANZA FORCE ENGAGES VILLA

Mexican Arriving in El Paso States Fight in Progress Between Santa Ysabel and San Andres.

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 20.—Unofficial reports received here from Mexico say General Ozuna with a force of 2,000 cavalry, twelve machine guns and five pieces of artillery is engaging Villa today in a battle at a point between Santa Ysabel and San Andres. Nothing is known of the result.

A Mexican who had been Villa's prisoner at Cuahuatlan and who reached here today, declared Villa has proclaimed his intention of executing any one working for or aiding any American. Passengers from Mexico City, arriving at Juarez late last night said their train was held up by bandits below Jimenez, the train guard disarmed and the passengers robbed, but otherwise unharmed.

Ozuna Leaves Chihuahua. Chihuahua City, Mex., Oct. 20.—General Carlos Ozuna left here today with a column of 2,000 cavalry, two machine gun platoons and a sanitary corps, all well supplied. It was said the command was to take the field against Villa.

Villa is reported to be in San Andres today while his bands are visiting the neighboring ranches to obtain food and impress the ranchers in the Villa commands.

HANLY SPEAKS IN OHIO AND PENNSYLVANIA

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 20.—Every executive, state and national is certain to feel the powerful influences of the liquor interests, but he can defeat their purposes if he is willing to fight, J. Frank Hanly told Ohio and Pennsylvania audiences today as the trans-continental dry special moved toward Pittsburgh from Cleveland. To illustrate his declaration Hanly revealed how the liquor interests tried to manipulate thru him before and after his election as governor of Indiana.

Ira Landrith called attention to the "similarity" of the Republican and Democratic platforms and candidates.

"The two platforms can be hung in chorus, and any good barber can make the two candidates look like Siamese twins in ten minutes," he declared.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS CLASH WITH MEXICANS

Fight in Big Bend Country of Texas Lasts 45 Minutes

Band of Thirty Mexicans Opens Fire on Detachment of Cavalry—Americans Suffer No Losses—Funston Reports that "Drunk Mexican" Started Fight.

San Antonio, Texas, Oct. 20.—American troops and Mexicans clashed near San Jose in the Big Bend country yesterday afternoon, according to a report received by General Funston early tonight from Colonel Joseph Gaston, commander of the district. The fight lasted for 45 minutes.

No losses were suffered by the Americans and information is lacking regarding loss among the Mexicans.

Colonel Gaston's report said that a band of about 30 Mexicans opened fire on a detachment composed of twenty three men of the sixth cavalry and Texas national guard cavalry squadron, engaged in patrol duty between Presidio and Ruidosa. Lieutenant Cudington of the Texas squadron, commanding the troops, ordered his men to return the fire.

A vigorous exchange of shots continued for a period of 45 minutes, the Americans and Mexicans firing from covered positions on either side of the Rio Grande. Information from Colonel Gaston did not indicate that the United States troops crossed in pursuit of the Mexicans. After the fight Lieutenant Cudington returned to Ruidosa, with his command.

Whether the Mexicans were defacto government troops or members of a bandit band was not known by General Funston tonight.

Major A. V. P. Anderson of the Sixth Cavalry has gone to San Jose to investigate the incident, as has Col. Riojas, commander of the Carranza garrison at Ojinaga.

Funston Reports to Washington.

Washington, Oct. 20.—General Funston, reporting tonight on the exchange of shots across the border at San Jose, said that late reports reaching him indicated the American troops were fired upon "by drunken Mexicans."

The despatch made no mention of firing by the American troops and said there were no casualties on either side. Officials here were inclined to attach little significance to the incident, believing that an irresponsible band had blundered upon the detachment of Americans and had withdrawn after firing a few desultory shots. There was nothing in General Funston's despatch, it was said to indicate a prolonged engagement.

A paraphrase of the despatch made public by the war department follows:

"Commanding officer of Big Bend district reports that on the evening of October 19th, twenty three men of the Sixth Cavalry and a Texas squadron of cavalry at San Jose, ten miles below Ruidosa were fired upon by a party of about thirty Mexicans. Some of these Mexicans crossed to our side but immediately withdrew to the Mexican side. There were no casualties on either side."

"Later reports show firing was probably done by drunken Mexicans."

NATIONAL FARMERS' CONGRESS ADJOURNS

Delegates Favor Houston, Texas, for 1917 Convention—Leave Selection to Executive Committee.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 20.—Altho the selection of the 1917 convention city is left in the hands of the executive committee of the national farmers' congress which adjourned its thirty sixth annual session here today a preferential vote by the delegates decided in favor of Houston, Texas. It was said the executive committee probably would accept that choice.

By unanimous vote the congress went on record as favoring the Susan B. Anthony amendment to the federal constitution, providing for equal suffrage. Other resolutions adopted by the congress recommended changes in the Miller laws so that funds would be distributed according to acreage under tillage and not according to population; withdrawal of the Shields, Myers and Phelan water-power bills pending before the senate; administration of the farm loan board law for the benefit of the farmers of the country; no increase in freight rates as compensation for increased wages and an investigation of the manner in which the fight against the foot and mouth disease was conducted in 1914 and 1915.

EPISCOPALIANS TO MEET IN DETROIT

House of Deputies Must Approve Action of House of Bishops

APPROVE PENSION PLAN

Vote To Tax Each Parish In the Church for Support of Pension Fund

SET $600.00 AS MINIMUM

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 20.—Detroit, Mich., was selected as the next meeting place of the Protestant Episcopal convention by the house of bishops late today. This action is subject to the approval of the house of deputies. The next convention will be held in 1919.

The house of bishops submitted to the lower house for approval the re-election of Bishop Arthur Selden Lloyd of New York as president of the board of missions and of George Gordon King of Newport, R. I., as treasurer.

The convention approved a plan of pensions for the clergy when the house of deputies concurred with the house of bishops in adopting a plan whereby each parish in the church is taxed for the support of the pension fund 7.4 per cent of the annual salary paid its pastor. The plan as adopted, provides for clergymen who have reached the age of sixty-eight, a minimum pension of $600, one-half of the average annual salary of the clergy and for a maximum of $2,000 yearly.

Urging that without affiliating itself with any "political scheme" the church take a larger interest in the work of improving the masses, three leaders of the churches spoke at a joint meeting of the house of the Protestant Episcopal general convention here today.

They said that by such action, the great mass of laboring people "many of whom have been estranged," can be won back to the church.

The right Rev. Edwin S. Lines, bishop of Newark, N. J., said "It is a great mistake to bind the fortunes of the church with the privileged classes."

The right Rev. W. A. Guerry, bishop of South Carolina, said the church has definitely and finally committed itself to the work of social reform.

"We know that the church is doing more than ever before for the working class," he said. "We should endeavor to bring about legislation to give every man the just reward of his labors. In such a way are we going to win back to the church the estranged and separated masses."

To the great body of laboring people of this country, the church represents privilege and is the enemy of progress. We know that this is not a true incident of the Christian church. We must let the church stand forth equally as the church of the rich and the poor."

The service of Christianity must be social service. The right Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, bishop of Connecticut, told the delegates.

The increasing interest in social service is evidence of the pressure of the finger of God upon human life," he said. "God is preparing a new world. Shame on us as a church if we fail always to be always on the side of social justice. We are coming to insist that human life must always take precedence of property rights and that the primary object of business is not to produce things and profits, but to produce happiness and human character."

The greatest danger to American life is irreverence. The right Rev. T. F. Gallor, bishop of Tennessee, speaking in the interests of religious education, said, and that he asserted in the last analysis, means a lack of patriotism.

The right Rev. William Lawrence, bishop of Massachusetts asserted that the crying need of the church is men such as the late James J. Hill of St. Paul.

"We need some 'Jim Hills' in religious work," he said. "Jim Hills" was the instrument by which some ten thousand railroad leaders were raised to affluence. We need a few men like him in religious education work to raise ten thousand educational leaders to affluence."

Decrying the present method of calling and educating young men for the ministry, Bishop Guerry also spoke at a mass meeting tonight.

"The reason for the decrease in the number of young men entering the ministry is not to be found entirely in the materialism of the age—the opening up of new and attractive professional and scientific pursuits—but in the lack of proper effort to lead them in that direction," he said.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS MYSTERIOUS DISEASE

Contradictory Behavior of Malady Baffles Physicians

Situation is Made Known at Meeting of American Association for Study and Prevention of Infant Mortality.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 20.—Infantile paralysis still remains a mysterious disease to the medical profession, particularly as to its origin and to a great degree in its transmission. This situation was made known late today at the meeting of the American association for study and prevention of infant mortality.

Dr. Wade H. Frost, past assistant surgeon of the United States health service, Washington, D. C., cited statistics of the spread and checking of the disease and declared:

"We have made no discovery whatsoever."

Dr. Henry Bracken, secretary of the Minnesota state board of health asserted that isolation of known cases was in his belief, the only known method of overcoming an epidemic. As to treatment Dr. Bracken said:

"We are at loss as to how to handle the disease."

The contradictory behavior of infantile paralysis in many instances baffled physicians according to Dr. A. J. McLaughlin, commissioner of the Massachusetts department of health. Dr. Wm. A. Harper of the Wisconsin state board of health, attributed one case in the state to a box of fruit received from an infected area in New York.

Prof. Abby L. Marlatt, director of home economics, University of Wisconsin in making a report on college work said that in the reduction of the infantile mortality rate the most potent factor has been shown to be prenatal care.

The American association for study and prevention of infant mortality has accomplished much in the seven years of its existence, according to Dr. S. C. McMillan, Philadelphia president of the association in his annual address tonight.

Dr. Hamill said it seemed incredible that an organization with the aims and purpose of this one should receive such limited support.

Mr. Hamill suggested the establishment of a bureau of health in the offices of the association.

Dr. C. Woodward, Washington, was selected president and Miss Gertrude B. Knipp, Baltimore, executive secretary.

Cullen denied he intended harming the president, saying he was not satisfied with the administration's foreign policies and just wanted to talk to him. A bottle of liquid in a bag carried by Cullen was found to contain medicine, according to the police. A knife with a blade five inches long and several wood chisels were also in the bag. Cullen has been attending night school at a local technical institute, working during the day for a steel company.

After reciting events of the war during his two years at the French capital, the ambassador said that the duration of the conflict was still a matter of conjecture.

"The opposing forces in this great war seem to be about equally massed—on the western front at least—and to be able to hold ground about equally," the ambassador said.

He also said that the people of Paris "have faith that the Germans will never again, during the present war get near enough to injure them."

SWEAR TO GRAFT INVOLVING POLICE

Captain Testifies Healy Forced Detective to Resign Because of Activity Against Saloons.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Graft involving the police and the politicians was sworn to today by witnesses at the hearing for warrants against Chief of Police Healy and his secretary, William Luthardt. The application for warrants made by State's Attorney McClay Hoyle charges malfeasance in office and conspiracy. Wesley Westbrook, captain of police testified that Lawrence Howe, detective told him there was $200 a month graft from the captain if he would allow slot machines to be operated unhampered in his district.

He added Howe was forced to resign by Chief Healy because of activity against saloons where machines were in operation and which had violated the closing ordinances. Several saloonkeepers testified to paying money to politicians to get their revoked licenses restored.

WILSON TAKES PART IN DEMONSTRATIONS

Alights Twice From Private Car to Thank Large Crowds

MAKES NO SPEECHES

Bryan Meets President At Pittsburgh—Rides With Him for Hour

TO ADDRESS FARMERS

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 20.—President Wilson, returning to Long Branch today from Chicago, participated in campaign demonstrations arranged in his honor along the route by local Democrats in Ohio and Pennsylvania. Twice at Greensburg, Pa., and in this city he alighted from his private car and thanked large crowds for coming to see him. A large crowd was assembled here tonight in the square in front of the railroad station, where red lights were burned in honor of Mr. Wilson. Introduced by Samuel Kunkel, treasurer of the Democratic State Committee, the president said:

"I have no speech to make, but I would indeed be ungrateful if I did not express my gratification that you should come out to see me this way. It is a great encouragement to a public man who is trying to do his duty to receive such a welcome."

The president hurried back to his private car, but just as the train got under way the coach ahead of his car jumped the track, bringing the train to a stop with a bump. A delay of fifteen minutes resulted.

At Greensburg the president left his car in a driving rain and walked outside the station with Colonel Richard Coulter, Jr., of the Tenth Pennsylvania regiment, just returned from the Mexican border.

A band played the "Star Spangled Banner" as he appeared and the crowd applauded. The president stood up in a flag-draped automobile, waved to the crowd, thanked them and then hurried back to the waiting train.

Brief stops were also made at a number of towns, where the president appeared on the rear platform of his car and shook hands with the people. It rained constantly, but the people kept it off with umbrellas.

W. J. Bryan, who resigned as secretary of the state because of differences with the president over foreign affairs, met the president at Pittsburgh and rode with him for more than an hour.

Mr. Bryan, after talking with the president, said he had become convinced Mr. Wilson would be re-elected. He has been campaigning for the president in the west and declared he expected the Democrats to gain several senators in the mountain states.

"I want to put it as strongly as possible that Mr. Wilson will win," said Mr. Bryan. "The people approve his Mexican policy and something the administration has done appeals to every class of voters."

He added the women of the west are for the president.

Tomorrow afternoon Mr. Wilson will address a gathering of farmers at Shadow Lawn.

Large Crowd at Philadelphia

Philadelphia, Oct. 20.—Owing to delay in Harrisburg, President Wilson's train reached here one hour and a half behind time. A large crowd was awaiting his arrival at the railroad station. Altho it was nearly 11 o'clock the president came to the car platform and shook hands with every one within reach. A committee of local Democrats presented Mrs. Wilson with a large bouquet of flowers.

The president's train left here at 10:55 o'clock for Long Branch where it is due to arrive about 10:30 tomorrow morning.

The suffrage supporters of President Wilson have been cheered by the addition to their ranks of Mrs. Belva Lockwood, who has expressed her desire to work for the re-election of the president. Mrs. Lockwood was a conspicuous figure in the equal rights movement in 1884 and subsequent years. She is now eighty-six years old and possibly her good judgment is falling as time slips along. The woman's bureau of the National Democratic Committee should not be too complacent about her enlistment.

Edison Day.
Today is Edison Day and it will be observed throughout the country, partially in honor of the famous inventor who has done so much for the world and partially as an event in the advertising world. The electric light was invented Oct. 21, 1879, and is in a world-wide way acknowledged to be one of the greatest single achievements in the history of invention.

There are almost countless other inventions credited to Mr. Edison and it is said that in none of them does he take so much pleasure and pride as the phonograph, with its power to create music. That is said to be the inventor's "favorite," but the world will heap greater encomiums upon his head as the years go by for electric light than it will for the "canned" music.

Governor Slow to Act For Foot and Mouth Disease.

Governor Dunne, in answering the charge that his administration has been notable particularly for the extravagance of appropriations, mentions the foot and mouth disease as having occasioned millions of inevitable expense. Colonel Lowden has called attention to the fact that in all probability much of this vast expense could have been saved if Governor Dunne and his livestock commission had acted promptly. The records show that the department received warning of the outbreak of the disease in Illinois.

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

THE HAMMER.
The man who plies a hammer on everything that's good, kicks up a lot of clamor, but doesn't saw the wood. We stand up for improvement, for forward steps each day; we know the old time groove meant stagnation and decay. Improvement's banner waving, right cheerfully we hump; we want to do some paving, and buy a village pump. We get the people feeling that what we plan is right, and then we hit the ceiling—the knocker is in sight. It is a thousand pities that knockers are on hand; for hankies might be cities, if they were only canned. The burg that's buried under a coat of mold and rust, might be a seventh wonder, if knockers bit the dust. One glum, despondent kicker, who greets all hopeful plans with ribald sneer and snicker, makes boosters also rans. The work of busy boosters is easily destroyed; the kicking human roosters soon make it null and void. So let us knock the kicker, and kick the knocker, too, and march to glory quicker than otherwise we'd do.

break of the foot and mouth disease at Niles, Mich., ten days before any active steps were taken for the prevention of the disease in Illinois.

What was needed at that time was prompt and effective action on the part of the governor of Illinois and a thoroughly efficient department would not have waited twenty-four hours, to say nothing of the ten days' delay. "An ounce of prevention" might have saved millions for Illinois.

Armenian Relief.

No recent movement for the relief of sufferers in the old world has been given quite such a general support as that for the benefit of the sufferers in Syria and Armenia. All over the country organizations and societies have joined in this movement which proposed that today and tomorrow be special dates for receiving funds. The relief movement was given distinct impetus by the resolution passed by congress, and in accordance with that resolution President Wilson appointed the days. The whole movement was fostered particularly by the American committee for Armenian and Syrian relief.

Locally, the ministerial association took up the matter and from the pulpits of local churches tomorrow many of the ministers will call particular attention to the awful conditions of suffering existing in the stricken countries. As these words come from Jacksonville pulpits, similar appeals will be made in thousands of churches the country over.

The Mexican Election.

A general election is set for tomorrow in Mexico in accordance with the decree issued by General Carranza. Delegations will be elected to the constitutional assembly, which will convene next month. At that time it is the plan of the Carranzists to have certain modifications made in the constitution which will permit carrying out of the reform measures that they advocate. When the new assembly is organized General Carranza is to report on his administration as first chief of the republic and then turn over this office to his elected successor. All of this sounds well, and coming from the Carranzists would mean more if law and order prevailed in Mexico. The real fact is that elections there are not elections as we understand them in this country. The vast majority of the citizenship take no part in such elections and really have no voice in settling the affairs of the government. What is more, they are not qualified to thus exercise the right of suffrage.

For years upon years Mexico has been a republic in name only and it will continue so until some assembly party remains long enough in control to provide the people with the educational facilities which will prepare them for citizenship. Mexico's great need is education. Stable conditions and permanent reform can not come there in a day. The right conditions must be a matter of growth.

THE COST OF LIVING

The 25c meal is soon to be a thing of the past, at least in some Jacksonville restaurants where it has had an important place on the bill of fare for many years past. "Thirty five cents," said a well known restaurant keeper, "must be the price very soon, for with present costs, what we are serving for 25c means a loss." And it would be no trouble to verify the statement for the living costs of every individual have increased so rapidly during recent months that certain evidence is at hand that restaurant and cafe owners must also be meeting increased costs.

The price of sugar has advanced twice the past week. Flour has gone up $1 a barrel at retail within a few days' time. A grocer said yesterday "I don't know what we will do this winter. Every time we want to buy a case or a package of goods we find that the price has advanced since our last previous quotation and on many of the things we carry we are now paying more at wholesale than the retail price a few months ago. Practically all of the firms from which we buy now give us prices subject to change without notice and we are not safe in placing an order unless we have had a price quotation with guarantee that it will apply to that particular purchase. So far we have advanced the selling price on only a few articles because of our early purchases. But higher prices must come."

Cartersville and Franklin county coal now cost local dealers $3.95 on board cars in this city, which means that the dealers are paying already 50c to 65c a ton higher than the highest price they paid for similar coal during the coldest weather of last winter. One reason for the higher price of coal is the fact that the mines are in an association authorized by the federal trade commission which permits them to have an understanding as to prices and a dealer can purchase one car or a hundred and he pays exactly the same price per ton.

A contributing reason, however, for the sharp advance in coal prices is the shortage of cars. This is actual and acute, and the mines in Illinois are now operating not more than half their capacity. Yesterday telegrams came to local dealers from mine operators canceling all quotations made and agreeing to accept orders only on condition that they would be shipped as soon as cars are available and that the price charged will be whatever the mines happen to have in effect at that time.

It's a condition and not a theory about the high cost of living which is confronting citizens today, and the worst of it is that no relief is in immediate prospect. It might come with a change of national administration, as the Republican party had time to struggle with the problem, but for months to come the consumer must pay more for what he gets of every kind. The only course left for many wage earners will be curtailment. Fortunately thus far there have been no advances or only slight ones, on clothing, dry goods, shoes and groceries but merchants cannot continue to sell at these prices when only goods purchased at higher levels are on their shelves. The relieving condition is that business is generally active and that in this community where business prosperity is so largely dependent upon the farm, that the farmers are receiving excellent prices for all that they have to sell. Wheat, corn, oats, hogs and practically everything that the farmer has to sell except certain high grades of livestock now command high market prices. As a result the farmer is going to be a free spender this winter, and for all the high prices, business conditions generally will be prosperous.

It is the poor who will want many things they cannot have this season and be fortunate if free from suffering. And the wage earner, too, of moderate means will certainly learn something of the lessons of self-denial if he passes thru the coming months and is still able to put aside a little "something" for a rainy day.

ILLINOIS STATE LABOR CONVENTION CLOSES

Retains Referendum in Election of Officers of the Federation.

Quincy, Ill., Oct. 20.—The thirty fourth annual Illinois state labor convention closed this afternoon, with one of the hardest fought battles of the sessions—the question whether the referendum be abolished in the election of officers of the federation. The referendum was retained by 44 votes after a number of addresses. Many began to grow into tirades between the factions, when President Walker capped the argument with a speech which is credited with being the cause of the referendum system being retained.

A clause in the constitution which provided that not more than one vice president reside in one city was stricken out.

A special resolution introduced in the last ten minutes of the convention instructs the officials of the federation to call on Governor E. F. Dunne to send forces to whatever amount necessary to restore order in Rosi Clare. It is alleged that gunmen following the departure of the governor's agents have so terrorized the citizens of that community that if conditions are not changed they will have to move elsewhere.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

The first national convention of the National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, or "antis," as their suffragist sisters know them, will be held in Boston Dec. 6. This will be the first convention held in America by women who believe that progress for their sex lies outside of politics.

The National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage is now five years old. Hitherto, only regular annual meetings have been held for the transaction of routine business, but this year the "antis" are planning a big popular demonstration of the constructive philosophy of their movement, to which will be bidden a thousand or more representative women from all parts of the United States. The immediate object of the association, which is the defeat of the suffrage movement, will not be emphasized so much at the convention as the anti's own plans for bringing on much-needed social reforms without having recourse to the drastic change in social organization which the entrance of woman into political life would effect. The association now has an enrollment of 350,000 women over 21. Its president is Mrs. Arthur L. Dodge of New York, who is also president of the National Federation of Day Nurseries.

Princess Abigail Kawanakakoa, a wealthy member of the old Hawaiian aristocracy, who has been prominent socially not only in Honolulu but in San Francisco, New York and Washington, where she has made lengthy visits, recently visited the Army and Navy Department at Washington and requested Secretary Daniels to give the "Hawaii" to one of the new battleships to be built by the United States. As the "Gibraltar of the Pacific," Hawaii has become a very important unit in the defense of the country, the princess averred, and recognition of the fact by naming a super-dreadnaught after her would not be amiss. This is the first time, it is said, that a woman of foreign birth and title ever requested the navy department to name a U. S. battleship after the land of her birth.

The youngest student at the University of Minnesota is Miss Margaret Moriarty, who celebrated her 15th birthday last week and was only fourteen when she entered, the youngest student that had ever been registered for a regular course at the university. Miss Moriarty completed her high school course of four years in three, in St. Paul, her home city. She intends to specialize in history and the romance languages.

FRED PRICE SEEKS NEW TRIAL.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 20.—The fight of Fred T. Price, now in state prison for killing Mary Fridley Price by pushing her over a bluff near the Mississippi on East River drive, Minneapolis, for a new trial reached the state supreme court today. Price was convicted of murder in the first degree after Charles D. Etchison, his former friend, told of an automobile trip during which Mrs. Price was hurled to her death over the high cliff. That Price should never have been convicted upon the word of Etchison, a confessed accomplice, will be the contention of Price's attorney, in arguments to be presented in the higher court.

Mrs. Mary Fridley Price came to her death on the night of Nov. 23, 1914. According to evidence at the trial, Price, accompanied by his wife and Etchison, a traveling salesman of Washington, D. C., drove to a point on the river highway, brought his automobile to a halt and hurled his wife over the cliff.

It was further charged that Price went to the foot of the cliff and, finding his wife still alive, struck her upon the head with a rock. The state charged that the alleged act was committed for the purpose of inheriting a large sum of money given Mrs. Price by her father, David H. Fridley, a wealthy pioneer, after whom the town of Fridley, Minn., is named.

ASK RADICAL CHANGES IN INDIAN AFFAIRS

Lake Mohonk Conferences Expresses Doubt as to the Wisdom of Present Philippine Conference.

MOHONK LAKE, N. Y., Oct. 20.—A platform calling for radical changes in the administration of Indian affairs and expressing doubt as to the wisdom of the present Philippine policy, was adopted almost unanimously after a warm debate at the closing session tonight of the Lake Mohonk conference on the Indian and other dependent peoples. The platform reads, in parts as follows:

"Until the Indians have been prepared to assume the duties of American citizenship the nation is in duty bound to protect their rights, promote their interests and provide for their education. x x x x x x x

"A permanent, stable and developing policy is essential. We therefore urge the creation of a non-partisan commission, permanent in character which should make a careful examination of the mass of Indian legislation on our statute books, much of it local and fragmentary, and from it develop an Indian law, general in its provisions, comprehensive in its policy, forward looking in its purpose. x x x x x x x

"The ultimate object of this policy should be to bring the present abnormal condition of the Indian to an end as speedily as possible by the incorporation of the Indian on the general citizenship of the nation. "It is self-evident that so long as the Philippine Islands remain under the sovereignty of the United States, the government of the United States must continue to be responsible for good government and efficient and economical administration in the islands. It is equally clear that the wise exercise of law must go hand in hand with such responsibility.

"We believe the policy of dispensing with the services of trained experts and scientists will have a far reaching and harmful effect upon the sanitary, social and economic life of the islands. We therefore urge that these necessary aids to the welfare of the people in the islands be not abandoned.

"We recommend an immediate grant of full American citizenship to the people of Porto Rico."

STORM PASSES INTO MICHIGAN. Chicago, Oct. 20.—The storm, which today visited this section with alternate rain and snow had passed into Michigan tonight, according to Forecaster C. L. Mitchell, who said tonight the indications were for cloudy and cold weather throughout this section tomorrow and fair weather with rising temperature on Sunday.

WOMEN LEAVE FOR TUCSON.

Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 20.—The women campaigners of the Hughes special arrived in Phoenix today on a delayed train and were met at the station by a committee of the Hughes alliance and also by boys bearing banners informing them that they were not wanted, and other banners advising the women of the city to absent themselves from their meetings and go home and "go to work." The party left for Tucson tonight.

SETS TWO SWIMMING RECORDS.

Oakland, Cal., Oct. 20.—Two American swimming records and one Pacific Coast record were made here today by Miss Frances Cowells, a San Francisco girl, who set new marks in the 440-yard, the 500-yard and the 220-yard distances.

FOUR AUTOISTS KILLED

AT GRADE CROSSINGS. Altoona, Pa., Oct. 20.—Four automobilists were killed in a grade crossing accident on the outskirts of this city tonight. The motor car bearing Mrs. A. Z. Pote, her 10-year-old daughter and a son and Ruth and Laura Meyers, all of Bakers Summit, to this city was struck by a train on the Hollidaysburg branch of the Pennsylvania road. All were killed instantly except the son, who was driving the car. He is expected to die.

MADDOO IN SOUTH BEND.

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 20.—"There is every reason to suppose that war would have been declared if that wild man, Theodore Roosevelt, had been president when the Lusitania was sunk, and since Hughes is but Roosevelt's understudy, it is natural to presume that war would come under similar circumstances with the Republican candidate in office," declared William G. Maddoo, secretary of the treasury, here tonight.

BENSON FAVORS EMBARGO.

Yuma, Ariz., Oct. 20.—Allen N. Benson, Socialist presidential candidate speaking here tonight, declared "a halt must be called on exportation of foodstuffs or great disaster will speedily overtake this country."

EXPORTS MAKE NEW RECORD.

Washington, Oct. 20.—American exports made a new record during September when $512,847,957 worth of goods were sent abroad. The exports were greater than ever before in one month. In announcing these statistics today the department of commerce pointed out that the American export trade was approaching the $5,000,000,000 a year mark.

MARSHALL PLEADS
FOR LESS CRITICISM

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 20.—Vice President Thomas R. Marshall, speaking here tonight, pleaded for less criticism of the president for the way he has handled the problems growing out of the European war and defended the legislation that averted a great railway strike, "bringing industrial peace in a week." "It is the first right of an American to be a partisan," Mr. Marshall said, "but it is his first duty to be a patriot. The man who hampers the president in time of danger is an enemy."

Discussing the eight-hour law, Mr. Marshall cited cases in certain Republican administrations when he alleged capitalistic groups had forced legislation and said if that was the case, "then may not honest laboring men choke a little justice out of a Democratic administration?"

BRITISH HOLD UP
DUTCH STEAMER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The Dutch Steamer Arakan, bound from a Dutch port in Borneo to Manila, was held up on the high seas August 30th, by a British war vessel and all her mail taken off, according to advices reaching Washington today. An inquiry may be made as to why a neutral vessel bound from one neutral port to another and far removed from the war zone was subjected to such treatment.

Great Britain's explanation of her extension of the censorship to the Pacific has been predicated on rumors that Manila is being used as a base for a German-Indian junta looking to revolution in India.

HUGHES WILL REST

AT MONT CLARE, N. Y. NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Charles E. Hughes, Republican presidential nominee, left this city tonight for Mont Clare, N. J., after conferring with William R. OBITUARY

Elizabeth Rist was born March 21st, 1844 in Fayette county, Pennsylvania, the daughter of Christian and Barbara Rist.

At the age of two years her parents removed to Hancock Co., Illinois. Here she grew to womanhood and here she met Martin Culler to whom she was married Nov. 16, 1864.

To them were born five children three of whom preceded her in death. The surviving children are Arthur S., residing at Beardstown, Ill., and Mrs. Bertha Wright, who resides near home and one adopted daughter, Mrs. Mary Ryman, who lives near Alexander.

There are in all (14) fourteen grandchildren—all of whom feel her loss as keenly as her own children. She is survived by three brothers, Smith who resides in Fillmore, California, Christian of Quincy, Illinois, and John who was at her home when she died; also by (8) eight nieces and (2) nephews.

At the age of (14) fourteen years she united with the Methodist church and later when they moved to this neighborhood she united with the Presbyterian church at Zion.

A woman of quiet, unassuming disposition she lived an exemplary Christian life—one whose heart and home were ever open to all who came her way.

For over (50) fifty years her home has been in this immediate neighborhood and her going leaves a feeling of personal loss to every one—old and young alike.

For nearly (2) two years she has been in poor health but was able to be about in her home to the very last—and all sufferings which came to her were borne with a sweet patience that leaves behind a beautiful memory.

The end came quickly and quietly—she simply "fell asleep on earth" to waken in Heaven.

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID
TO MRS. SARAH SHORTFuneral Services Held Friday Afternoon—Three Methodist Ministers
Had Part in Service.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Sarah Short was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Lambert, 817 West State street. The very unpleasant weather did not prevent a large company of friends from assembling to pay honor to the memory of one who for so many years exerted a helpful influence in this community and elsewhere she lived as the wife of the late Dr. William F. Short, Rev. F. B. Madden, pastor of Grace church, read various passages of Scripture and a poem by Mrs. Whitney, "The Home-Maker," which he found particularly applicable to Mrs. Short, who had gone across the border after a life of such unusual length and usefulness. Dr. F. A. McCarty offered a prayer and brief remarks were made by Dr. Joseph H. Barker.

The singing was by a chorus from the Women's College, the voices being Mrs. Florence P. Hartmann, Miss Rena Lazelle, Misses Ruth Harker, Virginia Snively, Margaret Scrimger, Kathlyn Falkenstein, Jessie Hall, Pauline Cox, Helen Harker, Helen Norris and Winifred Sale. It was especially fitting that the singers should come from the college and that President Barker should have part in the service, for Mrs. Short gave many of her best years to the college.

Dr. Barker's Tribute.

In his address Dr. Barker said: "We are sad at these hours of bereavement which come to us because our lives become so joined together as time passes that something vital in us is severed when death comes. After years of association in the family, in friendship and in the community the separation cuts us deeply. Yet we have a different feeling if we mourn the death of a child, a young man or a young woman, or a father upon whom other lives are dependent, than comes to us when one full of years is called. Sometimes when death takes one in the vigor of life we are unable to understand and a spirit of rebellion comes on us. But with one who has spent long years of service among us and has come on to the age of infirmity, the going really amounts to a coronation—a crowning—because of the work done so faithfully and well. It is in an instance of this kind that, mingled with our sadness, there is a certain joy and peace and the stars shine through our cypress trees and God's love makes for us a rainbow in the heavens.

"This thought is voiced in the verse of Scripture which says that 'David came to his death in good old age, and in many places in the Bible we find beautiful assurances of comfort for those who grow old in Christian living—comfort for them and for those who remain behind when the final hour of life has come. 'Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world,' and 'With long life will I satisfy thee,' were words spoken about lives like those of our dear Sister Short. So we are here today, not to mourn her death, but to pay tribute to the life that she has lived and to glory in the coronation of her labors. I believe if we could be near when a call comes to those saints of earth we might catch the heavenly vision which was given to one of the prophets and might say, 'Behold the chariot of the Lord and the horses thereof' and afterward live in a greater spirit of devotion.

"It is hard to measure the influence of a wife and mother. From circumstances such lives are kept much in the background and we lose sight of the wife and mother as we hear more and see more of the activities of the husband and father. You may search the records of this locality and you will find much about the large influence and the helpful life of Dr. William F. Short, but nowhere, I believe, will you find one written line about Mrs. Short other than the record of her marriage.

"I, Short were here he would be the first to say that the eulogies we have paid to his memory were the outcome of a double life—that the record was really that of two lives fused into one. The public life of the man is good and great and influential primarily because of the added strength and potency given it by the wife at home. Dr. Short was a better teacher because of the patience and the courage of his wife, who loved him back to strength when he came home wearied with the cares of every day life. His sermons were better and more appealing because of her influence, and more especially when he came to the presidency of the Woman's College did that wisely influence count. There the girls found in Mrs. Short a real mother, and today if we would look for the record of Mrs. Short's life we must find it in the successful career of her husband.

"But it is given to woman not only to share in the dual life of her husband, but to remain the crowning influence of the home and there with mother love to shine forth in incomparable glory. So I say today that we do not come to mourn Mrs. Short, for we know the wideness and the strength of her life and the inspiration that it has furnished to others. Our hearts are sad, but are not troubled, for we know that God has said to her, 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joys of thy Lord.'

"It was given to her to live actively and usefully for more than fifty years. Then the husband was taken and who can forget her patience in the years since, and her wish that she herself might go. Would that something of her spirit might imbue us all today and living thus usually as well, there might be for us as for her 'an abundant entrance into the kingdom.'

laid in her final resting place. The many floral offerings were cared for by Mrs. Richard Yates of Springfield, Mrs. Edward Clifford of Evanston, Mrs. Walter Brown of Carrollton, and Miss Mary Wadsworth.

The bearers were Richard Yates, Edward Clifford, Alfred T. Capps, John Laning, Levin D. Laning and J. W. Walton.

Among relatives here for the funeral were: C. B. Laning, John Laning and Levin D. Laning of Petersburg, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Julian S. Wadsworth of Fitchburg, Mass.; Mrs. Catherine Short Waller and Mrs. Louise F. Short of Oak Park, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clifford of Evanston, Mrs. Walter Brown of Carrollton, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Yates of Springfield, Hiram B. Prentice of Chicago.

RETURNS FROM MONTANA

John Hodges returned Friday morning from Montana, where he has been on a camping and hunting trip, in company with Dr. R. R. Buckthorpe, who expected to remain for a week longer. The hunters had their camp seventy miles from the Canadian border, not a great distance from Glacier National Park. Owing to recent dry weather in that section of the country, game has been quite scarce. The weather has been good but on the return Mr. Hodges encountered heavy snow which seemed to be working hardship with the sheep herders in Wyoming and elsewhere.

RETURNED FROM REUNION.

L. Goheen has returned from Lebanon, where he has been attending the reunion of his regiment, the 117th. But 192 of the regiment are now living, sixteen having passed away during the past year. The comrades dined with the students in their dining hall.

Mr. Goheen was reared near Lebanon and went into the army from there. He had the pleasure of meeting friends whom he had not seen for more than fifty years. All had an excellent time and the members of the regiment were invited to hold their reunion there again next year.

When the civil war began he enlisted in Fifteenth Volunteer Infantry of Kentucky and served until he was taken ill of typhoid fever and was mustered out of the service. As soon as he recovered he again enlisted and served until the close of the war.

Mr. Hewett's regiment was in some of the principal battles of the war. It was engaged in the battles of Shiloh and Pittsburg Landing and took part in the siege of Vicksburg and was at Atlanta in the closing days of the war.

He was in the government service in Kentucky from 1880 to 1885 and was then transferred to Illinois. Most of his government service in this state has been in Pekin where he was connected with the internal revenue department.

Mr. Hewett was married three times. His first wife died in 1880. His second wife died in 1904. He was married ten years ago to Miss Susan Hofreiter of Pekin who survives. Mr. Hewett was prominent in Pekin and was a man who commanded the esteem of a large circle of friends.

The remains were accompanied to this city by the widow, Mr. and Mrs. John Hofreiter, Mrs. Victor Darche, all of Pekin; H. C. Hewett of St. Paul and Charles Widmayer, of Chicago.

DECATUR COMPROMISES GAS AND ELECTRIC RATES

Council and Utility Company Reach an Agreement—Consumers Granted Net Price of 95 Cent-Gas and Nine Cent Electricity.

By an agreement which the Decatur city commissioners have effected with the Decatur Railway & Light company consumers in Decatur are to secure a five per cent reduction on gas and ten per cent reduction on electricity. The agreement came after a several months' controversy between the company and the city representatives. The new schedule of prices will become effective December 1.

Light bills for the average consumer in Decatur have been 12c per kilowatt hour with a net price of 10c when paid within ten days. Under the new price schedule the gross charge will be 10c per kilowatt hour with a net price of 9c if paid within ten days. Gas in the past has been sold in Decatur at $1.10 per 1,000 cubic feet with ten per cent discount for cash within ten days. After December 1 the bills will be $1 per 1,000 cubic feet with a discount of five per cent for cash if paid within ten days.

The Decatur Railway & Light company, like the Jacksonville Railway & Light company, is a part of the Illinois Traction system. Thus two reductions in gas and electricity have been granted the Decatur consumers within the past two or three years. The rate for gas when the present Decatur council came into office was $1.25 per 1,000 cubic feet and the rate for electric lighting was 15c per kilowatt hour. By comparison with this condition the Decatur people feel that they are fortunate in securing the net price of 95c for gas and 9c for electricity.

The Decatur Herald in telling about the compromise agreement gives the following statement:

Rates Reduced Once.

Attorney Le Forgee, speaking for the company said: "We have prepared a statement which is at the same time an ultimatum. Your city commissioners certainly have been active on gas and electricity rates, and I am not certain if it spells efficiency for the commissioners or hardship for the utility company. Recently, since you came into office, the rate for gas was $1.25 per 1,000 cubic feet and the rate for electric lighting was 15 cents per kilowatt hour. Once before, at your request, the rates were reduced—gas to $1 and electric light to 10 cents. Now you have a demand for a new reduction, which you have been persistently urging since last February."

Mr. Le Forgee said that in Danville there was an effort on to get a reduction in gas and electric rates. Jacksonville after a struggle had won a victory in the local courts, but the case would be carried to the highest court. Springfield has been engaged in such an effort for several years, and a large amount of money has been expended without results up to this time. The consumers got nothing.

Litigation Opposed.

"When the request for a reduction in the gas rate first was made the local officials of the company and the municipal officials agreed on one point—that it would be better, if possible, to have an amicable adjustment rather than engage in expensive litigation. With that view in mind, the Decatur Railway & Light Company engaged an engineer, Feistel, formerly with the state utilities company, to determine what in his judgment was the most that the company could offer in the way of reduced rates. On his report, made after a thorough study of the possibilities, the company is prepared to say that the best that can be done is to give these rates:

"Gas, 5,000 cubic feet or less, $1 per 1,000; more than 5,000 cubic feet per month, 95 cents per thousand. That is a drop of 20 cents since the commission form was adopted in Decatur. Gas bills paid within 10 days of the date are to be discounted 5 per cent so that will virtually make the rate 95 cents per thousand cubic feet.

"Electric light, 10 cents per kilowatt hour with a discount of 1 cent per kilowatt hour if paid within the 10-day limit. That is what we offer, and that is all."

Satisfactory Settlement.

"When would that rate be effective if we accept it?" asked Mayor Dinneen. The reply was that it would be applicable to all accounts due in December, that is for the November service, or as nearly immediately as is possible to make it.

"The consumers will get a reduction immediately," said Commissioner Robbins. That is better than litigating about it for several years and not knowing what will be allowed in the end.

"The light rate is fair," said Mayor Dinneen, "and will compare favorably with other cities and good service, but frankly I had hoped for a 90 cent gas rate."

Commissioner Mattes said that he did not care to impose such conditions as would result in financial hardships for the company. He wanted the lowest rate they could give and thought that immediate results would be as satisfactory as an increased cut which might be delayed for years.

Commissioner Ruthrauff agreed with commissioner Mattes and Commissioner Becker said that the acceptance of the reduction tendered would not bar the commissioners from asking for another reduction later if they thought they could get it.

Big Difference to Company.

Supt. M. L. Harry said that computing from the business of 1915 the reductions offered would total something over $16,000 per annum and he said, too, that the cost of the company was using would this year cost almost $5,000 more than the same tonnage cost the company last year.

The council thereupon passed a resolution accepting the new rate effective Dec. 1, subject to the approval of the state utilities commission, without whose consent there can be neither increase nor decrease in rates. Corporation Counsel J. S. Baldwin and Attorney C. C. Le Forgee are to present the case to the state utilities commission.

BRITISH CENSORSHIP HARDSHIP TO NEUTRALS

Jacksonville Woman Was Held Seventeen Days in Harbor at Liverpool While Authorities Took Own Time in Searching Swedish Vessel.

Miss Anna Lagergren, a teacher at the School for the Blind, suffered serious inconvenience recently on her return from a summer spent in Europe. Miss Lagergren's home is in Sweden and the she set sail in ample time to reach Jacksonville by the time school opened, her arrival was delayed some three weeks by the rigors of the British censorship.

Miss Lagergren sailed from Gothenburg in the steamer Stockholm. While north of Scotland the ship was intercepted by a British war vessel and was delayed four days at Kirkwall, Orkney Islands. The Stockholm, which is a liner of the Swedish-American line, was then taken to Liverpool and in that harbor seventeen idle days were spent while the censors searched the mails and authorities inspected the vessel for contraband. The Swedish-American liners ordinarily make the trip in eleven days, but Miss Lagergren was on the boat almost five weeks.

Such long delays in the forwarding of mails often works great hardship among the poor, according to Miss Lagergren, who said that thousands of dollars contained in letters from American relatives is still in British hands.

Miss Lagergren arrived in Jacksonville Oct. 3. She has since had double cause for congratulation as the resumption of submarine warfare on the part of Germany has caused all ocean travelers to feel far from secure. She crossed the Atlantic in 1914, shortly after the beginning of the war. At that time it was necessary to run with covered lights and in other ways seek concealment. During the voyage this year the ship made no such efforts to escape detection.

In Sweden there are three principal political parties. A royalist party and a democratic or liberal party leading in numbers, and a socialist party able to elect a member now and then to the Swedish parliament. Feeling in the country seems thoroughly against Sweden's entering the conflict. Sympathies are divided, some favoring the allies and others the German cause. There is reason to believe that most royalists are German sympathizers. Two factors stand in the way of great friendship toward the allies—the fear that Russia might seek Swedish territory in the future as she has in the past and vexation over England's summary handling of neutral trade and neutral mails.

STATE CHARITY WORKERS IN CONFERENCE

Purpose and Advantages of the Meeting Outlined By President Mullenbach—Social Problems and Rural Communities.

Alton, Oct. 20.—Social problems as related to rural communities was one of the themes discussed here today at the State Conference of Charities. At the night session President James Mullenbach made an address in which he pointed out some of the benefits which come from the State Conference.

Conference Means Study of Methods

Mr. Mullenbach said: "The Conference serves many purposes, but chiefly is valuable for the opportunity afforded social workers of the State to learn, in the first place, better ways and methods of doing their work. In general most of our questions are questions of method. We are usually agreed on what we want to do but how to bring it to pass is the problem. The exchange of counsel at the Conference offers one way of finding out how the other fellow does it. It brings to common attention efficient methods applied in some special way and tests their practicality for all, engaged in philanthropic service."

Better Co-Operation Results

"In the next place this counselling together promotes better cooperation between the philanthropic agencies and institutions, public and private by giving each worker, agency and institution an opportunity to know of the size, difficulty and utility of the other fellow's job. Such a swift survey of the field of philanthropy as the Conference affords, brings a keener sense of the extent and variety of human suffering and need, promotes a true appreciation of the diversity and scope of the agencies and institutions for care and relief, and reveals a deeper obligation for more energetic and comprehensive measures for the prevention of poverty, crime and disease."

"One of the most advantageous and satisfactory results of a Conference is the renewal of old fellowships and the gaining of new ones. The informal exchange of experience is in some ways the most valuable outcome of the Conference. By it we get a sense of personal values and judgments, an inspiration for fresh attack on our own problems, and a renewed confidence in our common endeavor."

Social Inter-Course Essential

Mrs. Mabel Dunlap Curry talking of rural social problems said:

"The difficulty of earning a farm and a home is a big determining factor in rural problems. Not only happiness, but growth and efficiency depend upon social exchange. Social life is the cross bearer of ideas and power. The lack of it develops narrowness, prejudice and anti social interests. Isolation inevitably develops the individualistic attitude."

County Needs Vary

"Wherever there are real social problems in the country, one is sure to find they come from forces that separate and impoverish the lives of the people. Bad roads can do this. Avenues and expression must be afforded thru natural channels, if we would really adjust the difficulty."

"There is no set formula for supplying this need, communities differing as wide as individuals."

"Social centers, farm clubs, Y. M. C. A.'s and Y. W. C. A.'s, church organizations, library extension, cooperative neighborhood enterprises—all furnish avenues of life and must be supplied a healthy community as carefully as its food and shelter."

"These forces must touch vitally, the man whose need is greatest—the tenant and the farm hand. The open country is no place for a movement that is not democratic."

"True charity seeks to give life more abundantly to the impoverished. I have visited communities where the dull gray atmosphere of social stagnation was responsible for a sordid immorality. Starved souls are apt to become abnormal and forbidding, if not actually vicious."

"There is the call for leadership in the country—men and women—preachers and teachers who go lovingly into these empty places and tap the great hidden reservoirs of power. The ability to make men get together and work together for a worthy purpose, is the great need in the solution of rural problems."

ARE TAKING ADVANTAGE OF THE RETIREMENT LAW

Seventeen Per Cent of American Personnel in Government Service in Philippines Will Retire at End of Year.

Manila, Oct. 20.—The secretary to Governor General Harrison, states that the end of the year will see the retirement of the government service of seventeen per cent of the American personnel. These Americans are taking advantage of the retirement law which permits them to leave the service with a three-year pension.

It was stated that of 1,800 Americans in government employ at the time the law went into effect, only half were eligible for retirement and about a third of these will have secured it by January 1. Practically every employee eligible for retirement has applied for it but men whose services cannot be spared, will not be allowed at present to take advantage of the law.

CHINESE WOULD SOLVE GOVERNMENTAL PUZZLE

Clash Between Various Branches of Government is Acute

Statesmen Struggle to Define Functions of Different Branches of Republic—China Wholly Without Precedent to Guide It.

Peking, Oct. 20.—Premier Tuan Chi-jui, President Li Yuan-hung and the Chinese parliament are engaged in a complicated struggle to define the exact functions of the various branches of the Chinese republic, as it now stands organized under the Nanking provisional constitution enacted at the very beginning of the republic.

Conditions are wholly different from what they were when Yuan Shi-kai originally assumed the presidency and attempted to launch the Chinese republic. At that time the struggle became very acute between the president and the parliament alone. The premier was not a great factor, as Yuan Shi-kai dominated him. But parliament displayed great independence and determination. It also played politics in a ruthless manner. Yuan Shi-kai was accustomed to dominate and could not endure the opposition of parliament which spent months in useless dickerings and seemed to have no fixed plan for the advancement of the republic. Tiring of the constant squabbles, Yuan Shi-kai abolished parliament with one swoop, and took affairs into his own hands.

With the reestablishment of the actual republic under Li Yuan-hung, there has been an honest effort to live up to the Nanking provisional constitution, but Chinese statesmen are finding it extremely difficult to bring order out of chaos in a country not accustomed to genuine constitutional government. Notwithstanding that Premier Tuan was designated by President Li the two men have not been in accord on various governmental matters, and Tuan Chi-jui has repeatedly threatened to submit his resignation.

Parliament is about to begin the drafting of a permanent constitution and great strife is anticipated. The premier and the cabinet while approved by parliament, are not in accord with the views of parliament by any means. From the time that Yuan Shi-kai designated Tuan Chi-jui as premier, it has been repeatedly stated that the Chinese cabinet is a responsible cabinet, a cabinet having authority to act independently and responsibly directly to the public.

No definite determination of the powers of the chief executive, the cabinet and the parliament has been made. China is wholly without precedent to guide it, and the clash between the various branches of government is acute and highly interesting.

BRITISH FORCES EQUIP BIG AVIATION SCHOOL

Establishment "Somewhere in Egypt" Will Soon be Ready to Accommodate Large Number of Students.

Cairo, Egypt, Oct. 20.—At a place which can be designated only as "somewhere in Egypt" the British forces are establishing what will be one of the largest and most completely equipped aviation schools in the world. An Associated Press correspondent who recently visited the site found the school was nearing completion, and he was told that at least seven thoroughly qualified pupils in the art of flying will be graduated each week so long as the war lasts, for service not only with British forces in Egypt, but elsewhere if their service was demanded.

This part of the world was chosen for the school mainly because it is adapted climatically to flying the whole year round, and because it is handy to the various theatres of war. Incidentally an observer here might remark that the sands of the desert also furnish a soft bed for the inexperienced to fall upon.

The school will accommodate, in addition to the pupils, fifty officers and 500 mechanics and other workers. Each student will require from four to six weeks training. A large number are already receiving instruction.

RUMANIA'S ACTION CLOSES LARGE GERMAN SCHOOL

War Puts End to Activities of Institution in Bucharest With an Enrollment of 1,600 Pupils.

Berlin, Oct. 20.—Rumania's participation in the war will doubtless put an end to the activities of the largest German school in the world outside the German Empire. This school, situated in Bucharest, covered all departments of education from kindergarten up to preparatory college work, and had 1,600 pupils. There was another large German school at Craiova. These schools were yearly inspected by a German school councillor, who conducted at them examinations for entrance into the universities of Germany, Austria-Hungary, Switzerland and Rumania. A number of German teachers who had been called to the colors in the first months of the war had been later released from service and sent back to Rumania.

INSTRUCTORS WILL TALK ON DANGERS IN STREETS

London, Oct. 20.—So many children have been run over by the ponderous omnibuses of London that the companies operating them have engaged a special staff of instructors to make a tour of the schools to lecture on the dangers of carelessness on the streets. It is planned to extend the campaign by sending the instructors around to the classrooms with cinematograph illustrations of how risks to life and limb can be avoided.

ST. LOUIS U.-ILLINOIS GAME POSTPONED

Owing to inclement weather the football game between Illinois College and St. Louis University, scheduled for Friday afternoon, was postponed until Monday afternoon. Manager Elum was in communication with the management of St. Louis University late Thursday night. It was endeavored to have the game played Saturday, but St. Louis had other arrangements and an agreement was reached to play the game Monday. This will make only three days between the St. Louis and Illinois Normal games, but Coach Harmon believes that it will not hurt his players, as all of them are in good condition.

The postponement was a big disappointment to the Illinois management. With good weather conditions there would have been a large crowd in attendance at the game. However, it is probable that the attendance will be satisfactory playing the game on Monday.

"CASCARETS" FOR A COLD, BAD BREATH OR SICK HEADACHE

Best for Liver and Bowels, for Biliousness, Sour Stomach and Constipation.

Get a 10-cent box now. Furred tongue, bad colds, indigestion, sallow skin and miserable headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good gentle cleansing, too.—Adv.

MISSOURI AND AMES MEET AT COLUMBIA

Only Contest in Missouri Valley Conference That Will Affect Championship Race.

Kansas City, Oct. 20.—Two games between members of the Missouri Valley conference are in prospect tomorrow for football enthusiasts, but only one will affect the championship race, as Drake and Washington, which play at St. Louis, have been eliminated from the title quest. Missouri and Ames, both undefeated thus far, and with Nebraska having the only clean slate left in the conference, will meet at Columbia in a game that probably will end the hopes of one or the other as a possibility for leadership of the valley.

Nebraska has gone half way across the continent to play the Oregon Aggies at Portland.

Missouri and Ames are old time rivals, the Tigers never having defeated the lawns, and this year both teams have exhibited power in their early season games. Moss' light lawns undoubtedly will have a hard struggle duplicating the defeat of 14 to 6 they handed the Tigers a year ago. The game at St. Louis will attract only passing attention, as Drake two weeks ago and Washington was put out of the conference running by Missouri last Saturday.

Edward German of the southwest part of the county was attending to business matters in the city yesterday.

THREE MILLIKINSTARS INJURED

Catlin, Killebrew and Meyer will Not Be In Today's Game With Bradley.

With three regulars out of the practice and their return to the game uncertain, Coach N. G. Wann is facing a serious proposition for Saturday, when the blue and white squad meets Bradley on the Millikin field. Killebrew, who starred in the Normal game, severely twisted his neck so that at present it is impossible for him to enter into scrimmage. The extent of his injuries is undetermined but it is not thought that he will be able to appear in a suit before Saturday.

Others Injured.
Meyer, freshman who has "set the world afire" at the guard position in the line this year, fractured his knee cap in practice Tuesday evening, making his return to the game indefinite. Then, too, Joe Catlin broke his little finger in scrimmage Tuesday when he piled up on a play. While the injury is not considered serious, still Coach Wann will hesitate before sending him into action against the "Hilltoppers."

Add to this list of injuries cold, wet weather and an entirely new set of signals and the chances which Millikin has for winning the game today are gradually diminishing.

Hard Practice.
The entire squad was put through one of the hardest practices of the year Tuesday night, running signals and scrimmaging in the rain for nearly two hours. Coach Wann is leaving no stone unturned in his attempt to wallop the Bradley aggregation, but it seems at present that the odds are going against him.

Graves Referee.
Paul Graves, who worked in the Normal-Millikin game here last Saturday will act as referee in the Bradley-Millikin game to be played on Millikin field today. E. L. Webber of Springfield, Mo., who has officiated at Millikin field in past seasons will act as umpire, while Harold Pogue will act as head linesman—Decatur Review.

FRENCH CHEER TEN AMERICAN AVIATORS

Great Assemblage of Distinguished Men Attend Luncheon Given in Honor of Dr. Morton Prince of Boston.

Paris, Oct. 20.—Ten American aviators in the uniform of the French army were cheered by a great assemblage of men distinguished in the official and intellectual life of France at a luncheon given today in honor of Dr. Morton Prince of Boston, who presented to President Poincaré last week the address "to the people of the allied nations" signed by five hundred Americans.

The French cabinet was represented by M. Painleve, minister of public instruction; M. Metin, minister of labor and several under-secretaries. Others in attendance were George Leygues, Chairman of the fortin committee of the chamber of deputies, General P. Edoys, chairman of the military committee of the chamber, Emile Boutroux of the French Institute; Gabriel Hanotaux of the French academy and many senators, among whom were Stephen Pichon, Baron d'Estournes de Constant and M. Guerin.

Included among the many deputies present was Franklin Bouillon, president of the parliament committee to promote the understanding of France abroad who presided.

The Americans present included Robert W. Bliss, secretary of the American embassy, Prof. Mark Baldwin, James Hazen Hyde, Lawrence Bennett and Whitney Warren.

Mrs. Pichon, Leygues and Bouillon, in toasting Dr. Prince, made sympathetic reference to the death, while fighting for France of Norman Prince, a nephew of Dr. Prince. They declared that the young Americans who had given their lives for France would never be forgotten nor would the French forget the outpouring of services and money for works of mercy in France and for the supply of munitions and the wholehearted good will of millions of Americans.

Dr. Prince in responding explained the difference between the neutrality of the American government and the ardent sympathies of a majority of the American people. He said he was proud that his family had given one son to die as an aviator in the service of the French army.

YALE DEFEATS VIRGINIA POLY

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 20.—Yale's eleven defeated Virginia Polytechnic Institute on a rain soaked gridiron today, 19 to 0. The blue scored three touchdowns and kicked one goal, while the southerners never seriously threatened to score.

A fog swept in over the rim of the bowl and a fine drizzle and the sultry weather handicapped the players. The slippery field slackened the Eli attack and the backs frequently stumbled and fell. Yale started off by marching on and down the field twice in the first period for touchdowns. The plays were mostly short line plunges.

BOXERS TO MEET TONIGHT.
New York, Oct. 20.—Seven representatives of New York Amateur Athletic clubs will meet a similar number of Pittsburgh amateur boxers in the inter-city tournament which will be held in that city tomorrow evening under the auspices of the Pittsburgh. A. A.

BRITISH LABOR MEN FEEL RESPONSIBILITIES

Appreciate Their Position in Empire Since War Began.

Unity of Purpose Recognized by All on British Isles to be Necessary in Order that Empire Not Forth Its Greatest Strength to Win War Seems to Have Changed Relationship Between Capital and Labor.

Birmingham, Eng., Oct. 20.—The labor men of the British Isles during the week's session of their annual Parliament, as the Trades Union Congress is called, gave many indications of their appreciation of the increasing responsibilities thrown on them since the world's war began. The addresses of their leaders in the course of the debates were even more serious in tone and substance than in the past, and the delegates, who as a rule are composed of the younger and more radical trades unionists, were far more restrained in their arguments than is usually the case.

Everyone of the delegates, altogether representing over 3,000,000 of the organized workers of the nation, seemed impressed by the evident change in the relationship between capital and labor brought about by the general effort toward unity of purpose recognized by all to be necessary in order that the Empire might put forward its utmost strength to win the war.

The Congress, generally considered as representing the views of the workers, whether organized or not, showed through the sessions its firm determination to carry on with the war until the Allies are victorious. All the differences between employers and employees were shelved for the moment and their solution postponed until the greater quarrel has been settled.

Trades Unionists, it was argued on all sides, had forgone many of the rights acquired after years of struggle, but this had been done wholeheartedly in the Empire's interest. It was pointed out, however, that jealous labor would be kept by organized labor to ensure that after hostilities have ceased all that has been given up temporarily must be restored.

Many of the delegates were very apparently concerned with fears as to the industrial situation in the period immediately following the war. The return to civil life of millions of soldiers, the cessation of the activity of the greater part of the munition factories and the reduction of warship building are problems whose solution they regarded as likely to dislocate for a time all economic and civic conditions.

Many of those who spoke laid great weight on the importance of labor's share in organizing victory. They argued that labor has borne the brunt of the war, first by furnishing at least ninety per cent of the men in the ranks of the army and navy, and then by forging the guns, making the shells and cartridges, building the ships and machinery for transport and also at the same time seeing to it that the crops were grown to feed the people.

VIRGINIA.

Dr. and Mrs. J. I. Parkhurst have issued invitations to relatives and friends announcing the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Georgia Berry Parkhurst, to Warren C. Sudbrink. The happy event will take place Oct. 26 at the Parkhurst home on East Illinois street.

Mrs. Harry Sinclair was badly bruised and cut about the head and face in an auto accident Tuesday. She was riding with her husband through a field in which was a stump obscured by high grass. They were riding at a fair rate of speed when the car hit the stump, throwing Mrs. Sinclair through the windshield. It was necessary to take 18 stitches to close the wound across her face.

Arthur Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper of this city, enlisted with the U. S. Navy for a four year term.

The local lodge of Royal Neighbors will act as host to the M. W. A. Lodge. The reception will be held at the Odd Fellows' Hall at 8 o'clock this evening.

Mrs. Cora Bingham was a Sunday guest of her son, Keith, who is a student at Bloomington.

MUST PAY POSTAGE.

Free Privilege to Former Deputies and Ministers of Italy Cut Off.

Rome, Oct. 20.—Former deputies and ministers may no longer enjoy the privilege of free letter postage, according to a recent announcement of President Marcora of the Chamber of Deputies. He stated that the measure was taken merely in the interest of an economical postal system.

Mr. Dunavan Visits Former Home.

George H. Dunavan of Oklahoma City, Okla., with his wife, is in the city visiting his daughters, Mrs. Jos. F. Shreve and Mrs. Dennis Schram. Mr. Dunavan is looking very well and says he fully recovered from an ailment of the stomach which troubled him 25 years. He says business is booming where he lives and money is plentiful. He also says that there is a strong probability of the state going Republican at the coming election as many causes have tended to weaken confidence in the administration and begot trust in the Republican policies and candidates.

OUR IDAHO CONTINGENT.

Word from Idaho is to the effect that John C. Rice, '85, Illinois College, now of Caldwell, is candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court of the state, with good chances of success. Our people will remember Mr. Rice as a son of Elder E. G. Rice.

Alden R. Hicks, of '96-97, I. C., became a lawyer, and is doing well in his practice at Twin Falls.

A. C. DeMay of the class of '95, is successfully conducting an abstract business at Rupert, Idaho. As is well known he married one of the Layton girls, who is showing the good qualities of an Illinois wife.

Mr. DeMay was one of the pioneers on the Minidoka project, and dwells in that western section.

James E. Babb, I. C. 1882, is a leading Republican of the state, resident in Lewistown, and took a prominent part in the recent Republican state convention at Boise.

Though you have been cleaning your teeth regularly, you will find an accumulation of tartar on the enamel and bits of food deep hiding between the crevices. Your dentifrice has not been REALLY CLEANING!

Loss of teeth is usually due to one of two conditions—Pyorrhea or Decay—both of which ordinarily develop only in the mouth where germ-laden tartar is present.

CLEAN your teeth—REALLY CLEAN them! Senreco, a dental specialist's formula will do it. Senreco embodies socially prepared, soluble granules unusually effective in cleaning away food deposits. Moreover, it is particularly destructive to the germ of Pyorrhea.

Go to your dealer today and get a tube of Senreco—keep your teeth REALLY CLEAN and protect yourself against Pyorrhea and Decay. Send 4c to Senreco 304 Walnut St., Cincinnati, Ohio, for trial package.

LETTER FROM REV. A. M. CUNNINGHAM IN CHINA

Interesting Experiences and Fruitful Labors as a Missionary in That Far Away Land.

Many Journal readers will well remember Rev. Alexander M. Cunningham, formerly of Murrayville where he has a number of relatives, and for many years a missionary in China. From a letter written his relative in this city the Journal is permitted to make the following extracts:

Paoing Fu, China, August 1st, 1916.

This is my first report after completing a quarter of a century of mission work in North China. Gratitude fills my heart as I think of God's goodness during all this period and especially in permitting me the privilege of serving Him on a foreign mission field, and that China.

The changes in these years have been very many—changes in government, changes in public sentiment, changes in modes of transportation, in educational institutions and in standards of education, but what means more than all else to us, changes in lives, morals and spiritual changes—development of Christian character. The Republic has supplanted the Absolute Monarchy. Western ideas of education are overturning the whole hoary educational scheme of China. Trunk lines of railroad are gradually taking the place of the old cart roads of the past. I well remember that when Dr. Whiting, Dr. Taylor and I went to Paoingfu 23 years ago to study the field with a thought of possibly opening a new station there, the river route to and from took us 12 days. (The land route would have taken about half of this time, but it was very hard traveling, and then too we were traveling in the summer time when the roads were supposed to be impassable.) Today the round trip can be taken with comparative comfort and no small amount of business transacted within the compass of a single day. We all know, however, that these material changes and resultant comforts are but by-products of that whose great work is change of character and which alone makes mission work so abundantly worth while.

We have seen very ordinary boys and girls develop under school and church training until today they are bearing a full share of the burdens of the church and society. It is a never ending source of joy to look upon different ones rescued from helplessness, homeless, and hopeless conditions of life, now after these years, taking leading places as preachers, teachers, doctors, Sunday school superintendents and teachers etc., and others less prominent still being heads of worthy Christian homes. As the Chinese have in a very real sense endeared themselves to us, it has been a cause of joy to feel that they needed us, our sympathy, and certainly our message. It is a great privilege to be permitted to hold even a candle when all around is heathen darkness, to be even in the humblest way a worker together with God in the great work of winning back of a wayward race. The fruits seen after these years, the friendships, these make mission work so well worth while—give the charm to mission life. Dr. Atterbury once said after his return to the states on looking back to the field where he had labored and where he longed still to be, "Mission work looks grand from this distance." It is grand even at short range.

My work during this year has been much the same as in the previous year. My chief work has been the pastoral care of a church of 365 members. This means one with his burden for every day in the year. "The burden of the Word of the Lord" is the way the prophet put it. But it is not all burden, however, for a good audience of earnest seekers after the truth is a great inspiration to a preacher and the opportunity to give them the Word of God knowing that some of them at least will receive it into good and honest hearts is a great joy to the one who delivers the message. I have come to know my people better this year than ever before.

Bible Classes in Government Schools.—For a part of the year it was a privilege to have three such Bible classes. If it were not for the burden of the souls of these young men it would be a very easy task to teach them as they are bright and interesting. It is difficult to hold the classes together as there are so many interruptions—so many calls on their time.

Special Days and Services.—In November we held the usual 4 days' rally. Some 158 persons came up from the country to attend the meetings—this being the largest delegation we've ever had. The theme for the rally was "Joy!" Joy of Confession, of Faith, of Prayer, of Worship, of Suffering, of Proclaiming the Gospel message of Bible study of Giving, and of Public Worship. The most of the speaking was by the Chinese leaders.

In addition to the regular special days of the year, we observed Mothers' Day, Children's Day, and the Day of Special Prayer for the Government.

Dr. J. W. Lowrie gave us a much appreciated visit of about a week at the Chinese New Year season. He not only met many old friends and addressed our people on Sunday, but gave a number of most helpful addresses before students and gentry at our city chapel—especially before a large audience of the literati who had received copies of the Scriptures from Mr. Jung Tao, a wealthy Chinese merchant, who believes the Bible to be the hope of China.

During our summer vacation it was our privilege to spend three Sundays with the brethren in Mancheng, as we were at Paoyangshan but 4 miles from there. We also went a number of times to Paoyangshan where the people there, who were kind and gave us a good hearing, but few of them had ever heard the Gospel message. The priest, in the precincts of whose temple we made our temporary home, often met with us in family prayers and seemed to be really hungry for the satisfying truth.

While it may not be necessary, I desire to call attention to an observation which has been especially impressed upon me during the past year, viz: the way in which leading Chinese are coming to the front prepared by the example and teachings of their foreign teachers, led by the Holy Spirit, to do excellent work and assume grave responsibilities. I have in mind three illustrations of the above.

1. It is admirable the way in which Dr. Wang, and Dr. Chow with the band of nurses have worked together in the carrying on of the great work of the Taylor Memorial Hospital, in Dr. Lewis' absence.

2. The efficiency with which Elder Hsiao has been able to conduct the different lines of work which center in the city chapel, including the preaching of thoughtful and helpful sermons, lecturing on scientific themes, teaching Bible classes and night classes, besides a large social work in which he has endeavored himself to the students who go to the chapel.

3. The excellent manner in which Miss Li Mu-chen and her associate teachers have conducted the Gould Memorial Girls' Boarding School through the year.

Most Sincerely yours,
A. M. Cunningham.

Mr. Cunningham has some interesting experiences while in China. When he first went there he arrived in Pekin and that same day word came into the house that in an outbuilding a woman, two little boys and a little girl were starving and nearly naked. Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham took one of the boys and kind friends took the other children and the mother was provided for also. Mr. Cunningham's protegee proved to be exceptionally bright and smart so he was sent to school, to college and to medical college and everywhere he stood at the head.

He gained such a name that a prominent native of Pekin came to Mr. Cunningham and said he had a daughter who would be a suitable wife for the young man. That is the way they do things in China, the parents always arranging the matches, so Mr. Cunningham agreed and the wedding took place and when the writer was in Pekin three years ago the adopted son was a prominent physician in the great city while he well nigh adores the good man who brought him up. The younger brother was almost as promising.

Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham were for twenty years in a school, he for boys and she for girls and the young people fondly called them grandpa and grandma. Finally it was decided to promote them to the charge of the station at Paoingfu and thither they were sent where the writer had the pleasure of a visit with them three years ago. One evening there was a loud knock at Mr. Cunningham's front door and so persistent that he was at a loss to imagine what was wanted.

He answered the call and saw before him one of his Pekin boys who had become eminent in the medical world and had been sent down to the place to take an important position in a hospital. Begging pardon for arousing his friends at such an unseasonable hour the man said he had just arrived with his family and his children absolutely refused to retire till they had seen Grandpa and Grandma Cunningham and it is needless to add that their request was granted by Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham most gladly.

One Sunday evening the writer was asked to speak in the church and did so. Mr. Cunningham acting as interpreter. After the service an elderly deacon of the church stepped up to the visitor and with beaming face placed his hand on his lips with a shake of his head and then placing it on his heart he bowed the other way meaning "While we cannot talk to each other our hearts are in the same place."

The Newark Posters Catalogue. On the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Newark an anniversary program was planned. One feature of this celebration was the poster competition. Two hundred posters in this contest were hung in the Public Library and over nine thousand people went to see them in the two weeks they were on exhibition. Three prizes were provided, first one thousand dollars, second five hundred dollars and third three hundred dollars. Reproductions of the prize posters and of many others submitted are given in this bulletin.

French History. Campan—Memoirs of Marie Antoinette, Queen of France and Wife of Louis XVI. Madame Campan was lady-in-waiting to the Queen.

Saint-Simon-Louis XIV and his Court. "No Recollections of a similar kind have ever been more popular than those of Saint Simon. They form a panoramic picture, drawn with wonderful skill, of the last twenty years of the reign of Louis XIV and of the period of the regency. The author, himself at court, was often an actor in the strange scenes he describes. Before the year 1829 only fragmentary portions of the work had been allowed to be published. Voltaire and a few other historians, however, had been permitted to see the manuscript and had made some use of it in the preparation of historical works. But when in 1829 it was finally published, it produced an extraordinary sensation. It probably gave the severest blow the Bourbons ever received. It showed that the most brilliant reign ever seen in France, when stripped of its gliding and tinsel, was chiefly a mass of rags and wretchedness. The popularity of the work may be inferred from the fact that in a single year six editions were disposed of in Paris. Adams Manual of Historical Literature.

Reut Fiction. Adams—The Unspeakable Park. Rinehart—Tish.

Check Bronchitis!

Distressing, Wearing Coughs Stopped by FOLEY'S HONEY and TAR

Eases Tightness in Chest, Heals Inflamed Throat, Raises Phlegm Easily.

Changeable spring weather; exposure to cold and wet; dry, dusty winds, all tend to produce bronchitis, with its weakening, wearing coughs. FOLEY'S Honey and Tar leaves a healing, soothing coating as it glides down the throat. Tickling, hoarseness, nervous hacking and distressing coughs all quickly disappear, tight feeling is gone, and phlegm is raised easily and copiously.

Mr. J. B. Williams, Trenton, Ga., says: "I have been using FOLEY'S Honey and Tar for years with the best of results. Last winter I contracted a deep cold and coughed with terrible violence. I began taking FOLEY'S Honey and Tar, got relief at once, and soon my cough and cold was gone. I prefer it because it contains no opiates and does no hurt if I take too much."

It pays you to buy only the genuine FOLEY'S Honey and Tar. No other cough medicine can give you as good and effective results. Refuse substitutes.  Every user is a friend.

"How do you feel, father?" "Daughter, my throat and chest feel easier and my cough much better after each dose of FOLEY'S HONEY and TAR."

TRADE AND INDUSTRY

NEVER MOVED QUICKER
Bradstreet's Says Week Brings Veritable Ground Swell of New Orders.

New York, Oct. 20.—Bradstreet's
today will say:
"Trade and industry never moved at a quicker pace than at present.
Old record measures are constantly giving way to new ones and while abnormally high commodity prices counsel caution lest a sudden veer-ing of trade winds may come, demand is so insatiable that buying seemingly will go on while the European war lasts. As yet there is no sign of the saturation point being reached as regards supplies of goods, and while high prices are complained of, there is no evidence, aside from conservatism in buying some textiles that have advanced largely of the buying movement being checked."

"This week there was a veritable ground swell of new orders accompanied by extraordinary quotations for leading commodities and clear evidence that the nation's producing factors cannot meet demand, paucity of materials being accentuated by inadequate supplies of labor, as well as by country wide shortages of railway cars."

Batavia, Dutch East Indies, October.—The position of London as the world's banker and the possibility of eliminating that city to advantage of Amsterdam in financial operations between the Dutch East Indies and America, are dealt with in the report of the Java Bank, which is the central banking institution of the colony.
The financing of the sugar crop, as well as of the largest part of the other products of the colony, has always taken place via London. While little can be said with certainty as to whether a change in this will occur as a result of the restrictions placed on the gold market, it is possible that, since various products are now being shipped direct to America, European banking centers will in future be eliminated. This would clear the position, unless, indeed, the present impediments to a free gold traffic in London should be entirely removed again.

Japan will perhaps in the same way be able to do without London's mediation for its payments in the Dutch East Indies, the report says, now that its gold stocks have been so considerably strengthened in consequence of the big war supplies; moreover, the gold at the Japanese government's disposal abroad amounts to as much as 500,000,000
yen. After the war the central status of Europe will probably no longer finance via London and will utilize the credit Holland can offer for this purpose. At all events, it seems likely that Amsterdam in the financing of purely East Indian undertakings.

WHEAT CONTINUES

TO BREAK RECORDS
December Delivery Sells at One Time at $1.71—Market Weakens Late in Session.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Wheat continued to break records on the board of trade today and for the second time this week seemed to threaten high water mark set in 1898 when Joseph Leiter cornered the market.
Wheat for delivery next December sold at one time at $1.71 and although the closing price was 2 cents under this figure the tenacity of the situation was not relieved.
In Chicago B. H. Dahlheimer, president of the Master Bakers' association of Chicago announced that the association will meet next Monday to start a campaign thru congressmen to obtain an embargo on the export of wheat and flour until the domestic situation is relieved.

Many holders seemed to have arrived at the conclusion in the last half of the day that the recent big advances in the value of wheat had perhaps discounted for the time being all the known bullish condition.
In this connection some advices indicated that an increase of receipts was probable owing to the advanced prices. Relative weakness late in the session was engendered also by rumors that the British government had forbidden British subjects to speculate in the American wheat market.

GOOD ATTENDANCE AT SHERMAN SCHOOL

Building Short Distance North of City Has Beautiful Grounds—Miss Lena Wilson Teacher.

One of the interesting seats of learning in the county is the Sherman school a few miles immediately north of the city on what is popularly known as the Beardstown road. The directors of some years ago are to be commended for planting the fine shade trees that adorn the playground which is of ample size and attractive and as the neighborhood is more thickly settled than some others the number of pupils attending the school is good.

The Journal visitor was cordially welcomed and enjoyed a call and a talk on far away lands a great deal. The pupils are bright and pay good attention to what is said to them and it is always a pleasure to visit the school and address the seekers after knowledge. The capable teacher, Miss Lena C. Wilson, was very courteous also and the call was one to be remembered.

Arranged about the wall are several very creditable pictures bought with the proceeds of entertainments and speaking well for the enterprise and good taste of the school. The directors, Messrs. J. H. Laurie, T. P. Martin and C. E. Black, are well disposed to the school and have furnished it with a good heater according to law and other appliances which aid in the search after knowledge. AUTO THIEVES IN BIG JEWELRY HAUL

Boston, Mass., Oct. 20.—"Somewhere in —" are several bushels of jewelry with an aggregate value of probably a quarter of a million dollars that has been stolen the past few months from suburban homes in the vicinity of Boston and from the summer homes in the few fashionable colonies along the North Shore. What has become of the vast amount of jewelry is as much of a mystery as is the identity of the thieves who stole it. All that is definitely known is that the cleverest thief-hunters of the big detective agencies as well as the police of nearly all the New England cities have been conducting a diligent but fruitless search for some clue that would lead to the recovery of the stolen jewelry and the capture of the thieves. Meanwhile the wealthy residents of this section remain in a state of panic lest their homes may be the next to be visited by the jewel thieves.

What to the police is the most mystifying angle of the case is the fact that not the slightest clue has been unearthed as to the whereabouts of any of the stolen jewelry. The amount and value of the loot are so great that to those experienced in such matters it appears almost incredible that it could have been disposed of without it becoming known. Advertisements describing some of the stolen jewelry and offering a big reward for its recovery have been published in the newspapers. Every pawnshop within a radius of several hundred miles of Boston, and even those in distant cities, have been gone thru with a fine-tooth comb. Every known "fence" has been raided and hundreds of "stool" pigeons have been quizzed. But all has been in vain.

The police are willing to admit that the gang is one of the "slickest" with which they ever have been called upon to deal. The thieves are believed to be of the automobile type who rendezvoused in Boston or some more distant city, motored to the place where the theft was to be committed, made the break and then sped away. About the only basis for this theory, however, lies in the fact that an automobile or some other conveyance would have been necessary in many cases to carry away the large quantity of silverware, jewelry and valuable bric-a-brac that was stolen.

In the late Summer and Fall the thieves confined their operations largely to the fashionable places along the North Shore, including Essex, Marblehead, Beverly and Manchester-by-the-Sea. With the close of the summer homes by the wealthy residents the gang apparently have shifted their operations to Boston suburbs, where several big breaks hearing the familiar earmarks of their work have been reported recently.

One of the biggest raids by the gang was at the Summer home of Samuel D. Warren at Essex. Here jewelry and silverware to the value of nearly $25,000 was taken. This job combined good luck and hard luck for the thieves, for, altho they had little difficulty in entering the house and found the safe door unlocked, they overlooked several thousand dollars' worth of jewelry which was at their finger tips. However, the jewelry they obtained amply repaid them for their efforts. One of the most valuable pieces was a large first-class emerald, in old-fashioned setting, surrounded with diamonds, on a little gold chain, which was valued at $12,000. A full description of this and other pieces of jewelry stolen from the Warren home, including many heirlooms of almost priceless value, has been sent broadcast over the country, but so far not the slightest clue has been obtained as to the identity of the gang of thieves or their method of disposing of their loot.

PICKED UP HOSPITAL PATIENT.

John Weldon, an escaped patient from Jacksonville State Hospital, was picked up by the police Friday morning. Weldon escaped about four days ago and when found by the police Friday was nearly frozen as he was not heavily clad. When taken to the station he told a rambling story and it was some time before the police discovered his identity. Weldon was sent to the hospital from Springfield. He was turned over to the hospital authorities and taken back to the institution.

FEW INDICATIONS OF UPSETS IN EAST

Easy Games Appear to Predominate in Today's Schedule of Leading Eastern Colleges.

New York, Oct. 20.—What appears to be easy games predominate in the games of the leading eastern college football teams for Saturday and there are few indications of form upsets so far as can be judged by the records of the various elevens to date. Harvard plays the Massachusetts Aggies; Princeton meets Lafayette; Pennsylvania tackles Penn State; Cornell has Bucknell as opponents; Army faces Trinity; Navy meets West Virginia; Wesleyan, while Yale will be idle, having played Virginia Polytechnic this afternoon.

Of these teams, Pennsylvania appears to have the strongest opponent of the day because Penn State has rolled up double figure scores against every eleven met this season.

Harvard faces the Massachusetts Aggies, which team made the Crimson work for a five to nothing victory in 1915.

The Cornell players are not likely to be hard pressed by Bucknell. Two games which promise closer play are the Syracuse-Pittsburg and the Dartmouth-Georgetown contests. All four elevens have had excellent records in the short season to date.
